Ye Olde Times Table and prime factorization

Look for patterns.

Circle all of the prime numbers.

Shade in all of the numbers that are the product of 2 primes.

Play 'cut out a prime factor.'

How interesting! The perfect squares seem to be separated by the odd integers.

Write each number as the product of primes.

	2	3		5	6	7	8	9 3,3	10
2	4	6	8 2,2,2	10	12	14	16	18	20
3	6	9	12	15	18	21	24	27
4	8 2 2,2,2			*			10 11 11 11
	10		20	25	30		40	45	50
6	12 3 2,2,3	18	24	30	36		48	54	60
	14	•••	28	35	42	49	56	000 000 000	70
8	16 2 2,2,2,2	24	32	40	48	7 7,7 56 3 2,2,2,7	64	000 000 000	00000
9				*		63 3,3,7			90
•	20		40	*	60	70			*****